MARK RUSSELL AT CONSTITUTION HALL

Mark Russell, the king of Potomac humor, will make one of his rare Washington appearances in DAR Constitution Hall on Tuesday evening, January 17, 1984. The "Night with Mark Russell" is a benefit performance for the Public Employees Roundtable and marks the end of the year long commemoration of the Civil Service Centennial Year.

Mark Russell's lighthearted analysis of the events of the day has entertained audiences throughout the country. For many years Russell packed the house at the Shoreham Hotel with commentary and original songs poking fun at the major events and figures of the day. He regularly appears on "Real People" and his own television shows on PBS.

The Public Employees Roundtable is made up of public employee organizations. The Roundtable was formed to show the American people the contributions government employees -- at all levels -- make to our nation. It sponsored Public Employees Appreciation Day, provides public service announcements to radio and television stations regarding public employees' contributions and work, and encourages research and issues related to public employment.

Tickets are $15 and $25 and are available from Charge-a-ticket. For ticket information and to purchase tickets call 626-1000. The Public Employees Roundtable is a 501(c)(3) tax exempt organization. A portion of the ticket price is tax deductible.
